Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that we announce MUSKCON 2015, a one day event of exclusive ultrasound topics at Gangavathi. This edition of the conference will deal with common clinical applications in the areas of general medicine, surgery and obstetrics & gynecology. There will be a live demonstration on the guidelines based Obstetric imaging – trimester wise. The usage of convex, high frequency linear and transvaginal transducers in the right setting will be emphasized. Decision making on the basis of structured ultrasound examination will be the highlight of the event.

Please do come and participate in this feast of ultrasound.
