On 19th February 2017

Venue: Centenary Auditorium, S. Nijalingappa Medical College, Bagalkot

Dear Colleagues,

It is our proud privilege to invite you to MUSKCON – 2017, the annual conference of the Medical Ultrasound Society of Karnataka. It is being jointly organized by MUSK, the departments of OBG and Radio-diagnosis at SNMC, Bagalkot Obstetric and Gynecologic Society and Bagalkot Radiological Imaging Association.

This year's annual conference focuses on a few important applications of Ultrasonography in Gynecology and majorly on its role in Obstetrics. We will also have a live demonstration of the midtrimester anomaly scan by the renowned Dr B S Rama Murthy.

Learning is always a pleasure. We promise you a galaxy of speakers, the best of academicians, who will make this an unforgettable learning experience.

S. Nijalingappa Medical College and HSK Hospital and Research Centre, Bagalkot, welcomes you whole heartedly to be a part of this academic feast. Give us an opportunity to treat you to warm North Karnataka hospitality in the land of rich heritage and beautiful people.

Looking forward to receiving you on 19th February 2017.
